Bikes for Kids and Dave Zabriskie Inaugural Time Trial Challenge. A successful weekend of events in Salt Lake City. Trips for Kids to Celebrate 20th Anniversary with Gala Dinner and Auction in November

Z-man with some of the event participants.

Twenty amateur riders challenged Dave Zabriskie in a three-mile time trial race up Traverse Mountain in Draper, Utah to benefit his bicycle advocacy organization, Yield to Life. The inaugural Yield to Life Time Trial

Challenge is the only race that gives amateur cyclists the opportunity to race against the current USA time trial champion.

Yield to Life Time Trial Challenge benefits cycling awareness campaigns, educational programs and road and sign improvements; a non-profit organization founded by Zabriskie in 2007, is dedicated to the protection of cyclists and the promotion of safe cycling. Zabriskie has been hit by cars no less than three times while training on his bike in his home town of Salt Lake City, Utah
